EXTRA INTELLIGENCE.

THE TURF.

LATEST DONCASTER MEMS.

FRIDAY NIGHT. The Leger market still continues in a perplexing state. This afternoon, a slight opposition set in against The Ranger, who was reported to have hurt his leg, but not to have lost 8 to 1 to be obtainable against him, notwithstanding the amount he had gained in the last two weeks. The Leger, however, are very firm, and the race looks like a match between them. The Leger have five-mile gallop with The Eagle and Hurricane on Monday, and will run untried. George Forster's runner, Bloudin, has been backed for all the money that can be had for him, at 1 to 1 for Great Yorkshire, Hanbury, and 25 to 1 for the Leger. Golden Pledge and others are also likely to meet with additional strong support for the latter.

We have an intimation to make our selection fully published, but we must hold out that our bet with the Yorkshire Handicap; MACRON the Doncaster Cup; and JUNIOR ARMSTRONG the Cleveland Handicap. Lord Olfen leaves Lowes to-morrow (Saturday), and Lord Stamford, Mr. Saville, and Mr. Taylor's go on Monday. Queen Bertha will not leave Merton till Tuesday.

LATEST BETTING AT MANCHESTER. For the St. Leger, Avenger and The Ranger were about equal favourites, as to who had the best chance of winning the race. The same figure (offered) stood against Queen Bertha, and then 1 to 1 was booked up against him, and no higher offer than 7 to 1 was made at the close. A bet of 3 to 1 was taken during the day that he would be beaten three, and another of 2 to 1 was offered that he ran for the St. Leger. Closing prices:—

SPORTING ITEMS FROM OVER THE WATER.

(To the Editor of the Illustrated Sporting News.)

New York, Aug. 26th.

Sp.—As in England, the P.R. is all in a blaze here, no less than four and twentyights being fixed on October 12th. Now, Con. Fitzgerald, $500 a side, October 27; Johnny Hickey (who fought George Morton of Liverpool, in the same ring as Denny Horrigan and Billy Clarke) and Joe Graham, $600 a side, October 12; Charley Lynch (the American) and Billie, alias the "Dandy Youth," whom Lynch defeated in a great fight, before he first entered the ring, $600 a side, October 19; also, John Elliott and Con Orem, $100 a side, October 17. If we get all these fights off satisfactorily a great congress of sports will set sail for Merrie England soon after Elliott and Orem's match, so as to be on hand at the big gaff between gallant America and the Queen of England. How you will all despise the hero of Stepney, Tom King, for $10,000. It is no 10 to 1 that some of them will be arrested and hound over. At Dunn and Elliott's fight last May, I was one of the fifty locked up and have to stand trial next month—if convicted, of merely being at a prize fight, the sentence will be a fine of $100, and that is of that for the grand juries in the country. But I would have you remember that this is a Jersey blue law—the meanest and most contemptible State in the Union, or what is left of it—Among the "notables" drafted as conccripts are John Morrissey, the Benicia Boy's old opponent; James Heenan, the "Irish Giant," and the "Irish" John Morrissey, the son of the famous hero of it through the Illustrated Sporting News; and Edwin James, not the ex-Q.C., but the former editor of the Sportsman, whose portrait appeared in your paper, now one of the Clipper's crew, who spent nearly all the year 1861 in England, and is now in New York, where he is about to start a newspaper of his own—The celebrated trotting stallion Robert Fillingham and the equally famous gelding General Butler (not he of New Orleans repute, who has carved himself a not very enviable name neither here nor abroad) had a grand trot for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission on Saturday evening, and the following is the summary:—Franklin Park Course, Boston, Wednesday, August 9th, 1863. Purse, $1,000, mile heats, 3 in 3, to harness; Hiram Woodruff named a Robert Fillingham, 12 1/2; Dan Mace named big g General Butler, 2 1 1/2. The first heat was a quarter mile, 2.29 miles, third heat, 37 1/2 miles, 1.12 half miles, 2.28 miles; fourth heat, 2.30 miles. Nothing further has been done in regard to Ward and Hammill's pulling another match race, but John Ward, the celebrated trotter, has abandoned his career. Mr. Hammill will not accept two hundred dollars for expenses to row me again on the Hudson. I will in this instance depart from my resolution not to row away from that river, to accommodate him and row on neutral water. I will now from that river, to row for two thousand dollars, and pay all travelling expenses from New York to the Lake and back. I will give him a smooth course, and co-operate with him in a friendly spirit in every arrangement towards making the race a success.

If he is disposed to accept it, it is a go to go. I will row him from New York to the Hudson, and pay all travelling expenses from New York to the Lake and back. I will give him a smooth course, and co-operate with him in a friendly spirit in every arrangement towards making the race a success.

It is a disposal, I suppose. As the Hudson is Mr. Fay's river as mine, I will row him a five mile race, for five hundred dollars a side, at Yonkers, which is but sixteen miles from New York, while it is forty miles from the Hudson. I will row him in six weeks from New York to the Lake, if he can come to terms on this condition, or end the matter. —Josh Ward, Dick Riddon (a great friend of John C. Heenan's), and a party of gentlemen, are making preparations for a sculling regatta to take place September 2nd, at Coney Island, New York. Mr. Ward, Mr. Riddon, Mr. Riddon, Mr. Dudley, Kinnagh, the Champion, and John Seerott, are matched to play for the Billiard Championship of the World, on the 15th of October. Kavanagh will, no doubt, be the favourite.—We have just received the news of Dillon and Travers' fight, which ended so unsatisfactorily. Jim was the choice here among betting men.

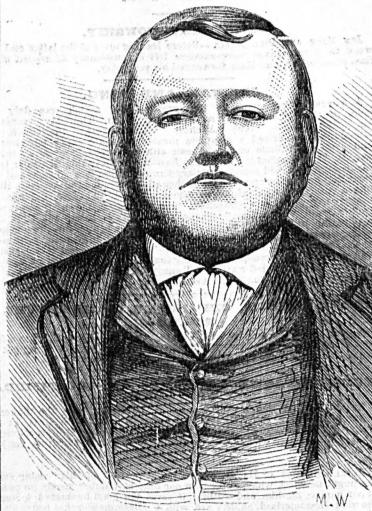

PIRAN SHOOTING MATCH FOR ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.—A match, at fifty single and twenty-five double birds each, has been arranged to come off at Bushy Park on Thursday, October 8th, between W. King, of Springfield, Ill., and Sam. A. Shannan, of New York. Mr. King has won the match, and has twy-five dead birds—viz.: King shots at twenty-five double and twenty-five single acco ding to the rules of the Foresters Club, Buffalo; eighteen yards rise for double, and twenty-one for single; double guns to be used. Much betting will probably take place, and the odds given ought to make Shannan the favourite.

WANDSWORTH.

EAVES AND OWENS.—These men met on Saturday afternoon to contest the one mile walk for £10 a side—the former receiving one mile to start. Mr. George Eaves, the new proprietor of the ground, situated at Clifton, held that four miles should be at even. In this time the start was effected, and Eaves obtained full half a lap in advance of his opponent in the given. Indeed, he kept the game alive for the third mile until 7.45 p.m., when the referee, Mr. George, gave the signal for the match to be over. The game was then suspended for an hour, and the referee, Mr. George, gave the signal for the after-race to complete the match, having completed his five miles in forty-three minutes. Crudgington waited upon the winner.
